VENDOR AT MEMORIAL DAY MURPH AT ETHOS

Ethos Athletic Club runs Murph every Memorial Day weekend in honor of Navy SEAL Lt. Michael P. Murphy. Two capped classes, both sold out every year, plus the families and friends who come to watch. Athletes finish hungry and thirsty, and they stay to cheer the last finishers. Every entry funds a veteran's PTSD recovery through WarriorWOD Foundation.

BRING

Your own tent, table, chairs and signage.

Tent weights, at least 25 lb per leg. The lot gets wind.

A payment method that does not need power. There is no electricity at vendor spaces.

A trash bag. Leave the space as you found it.

GROUND RULES

Keep the run route clear. Both miles leave from the lot. Set up only in your marked space.

No alcohol sales and no generators.

Food and drink vendors bring the health permit required for your business and follow its rules on site.

Quiet during the brief. Each class opens with the story of Lt. Murphy and a moment of silence.

HOW TO APPLY

Email events@warriorwod.org by May 14, 2027 with your business name, contact person, phone, what you sell (food, drink or retail) and whether you are veteran-owned.

Spaces are limited and confirmed in the order received. Veteran-owned businesses get first pick.

WANT TO DO MORE?

Donate a share of the morning's sales to WarriorWOD and we will say so at your table and in the thank-you post. Or step up to a sponsorship, which starts at $250 and includes your name on the shirt. $1,500 funds one veteran's complete six-month recovery.
